Dues payments to the Home Builders Association of Greater Austin are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. However, dues payments may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expense, subject to exclusion for lobbying activity. Because a portion of your dues is used for lobbying by NAHB, TAB and the HBAGA, an average of 30% of the total dues, or ranging from $256.90 for Associates to $2,538.90 for high-volume builders, is not deductible for income tax purposes. Please see the website www.hbbaustin.com for a full list of total non-deductible portion of dues by dollar amount for each membership dues level.
